

BIOGRAPHY

Lieutenant Colonel, Carl D. Wiley, (USA) (Ret)

Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) Wiley served in the Department of Defense for forty years, first as an active-duty soldier, then as a contractor, and later as a civil servant. Serving at every level from platoon leader to the Pentagon first as a Transportation Officer, converting to Army Aviation in 1983. Key assignments include Executive Officer, 7-159th Aviation Intermediate maintenance Battalion; Chief Aviation and Electronic Management Officer, 19th Corps Material Management Center, 3rd COSCOM (FWD)/21st Theater Support Command/ United States Army Europe (FWD); Director Aviation Logistics Planning Group, United States Army Aviation Logistics School, Fort Eustis VA; Aviation Logistics Support Officer, Department of the Army G-4; Inspectors General, Department of the Army and Department of the Navy Inspector General Agencies; Apache Helicopter (AH-64) Program Analyst, Department of the Army - G8; Strategic Plans Specialist and Encroachment Officer, U.S. Army Garrison, Fort Huachuca, AZ; Transformation & Stationing Program Analyst, Yongsan Garrison, South Korea. Awards and decorations the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (4th Awd), Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal (2nd Awd), Army Achievement Medal, Southwest Asia Campaign Medal, NATO Medal, Saudi Arabia Liberation of Kuwait Medal, Kuwait Liberation Medal, Honorable Order of Saint Michael Army - Aviation Association of America, and Commander's Award for Civilian Service. Combat veteran, cavalryman, paratrooper, senior aviator, and maintenance test pilot.

Mr. Wiley participates in several military and non-military organizations. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Technology and a Master's Degree in Aeronautical Science.

Mr. Wiley is married to Colonel Angelia D. Farnell USA (Ret).